Join us for week one of our new sermon series!

Many have trouble believing in a God they cannot see or completely understand.
If God does not answer their prayers, stop tragedies from happening, or make them feel like he is there, how can they believe?
This series will talk about God not living up to our expectations —and why that is a good thing.

FROM THE PASTOR

SENIOR PASTOR
REV. RICK IVEY

“After calling the crowd together with his disciples, Jesus said to them, “All who want to come after me must say no to themselves, take up their cross, and follow me.

All who want to save their lives will lose them.

But all who lose their lives because of me and because of the good news will save them. Why would people gain the whole world but lose their lives? What will people give in exchange for their lives? Whoever is ashamed of me and my words in this unfaithful and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of that person when he comes in the Father’s glory with the holy angels.”

Mark 8 : 34-38 CEB

We had a wonderful Holy Week and Easter Sunday at Wesley UMC. Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Egg Hunt, and Easter Sunday were all successful. It was a joy to meet visitors and see people who have not been in worship for a while. Thank you to everyone who came out, participated, or supported Wesley so we could celebrate together.

On Easter, I invited everyone to remember the invitation Jesus has made to each of us. We are invited to believe in him. And we can all look forward to the great banquet where Jesus’s victory over sin and death will be celebrated. (Revelation 19)

I also encouraged you to remember what being prepared for the future banquet means.

Jesus invites us to pick up our cross and to follow. We all know his invitation is not as charming or easy as other invitations we might receive. Commercials promise everything can be fixed easily with the next purchase. Jesus calls us to endure the hardship and suffering of working for truth, justice, and peace in our world.

It certainly is not as charming or easy as other invitations but is the only one that leads to real life and life eternal.

In Christ,
Rick Ivey
Senior Pastor
