Join us for week two of our new sermon series!

Many have trouble believing in a God they cannot see or completely understand.
If God does not answer their prayers, stop tragedies from happening, or make them feel like he is there, how can they believe?
This series will talk about God not living up to our expectations —and why that is a good thing.

Wesley BOOKWORMS

The Wesley Bookworms picked a big book this time, but it is one that will not turn you loose until you reach the bitter end.

It might be possible to talk about "The Distant Hours" by Kate Morton all afternoon, but we'll try to exercise some restraint!

Read it and join us at noon,
Tuesday, April 20,
at Chris Broussard's house in Old Town.

Questions? Call Elaine, (409) 454-6460.

FROM THE PASTOR

SENIOR PASTOR
REV. RICK IVEY

“Bring in your kingdom
so that your will is done
on earth as it’s done in heaven.”

Matthew 6:10

The Kingdom of God, also called the Kingdom of Heaven, is what Jesus talks most about in Matthew’s account of his life.

King’s, Kingdoms, and Emperors where the normal way people were governed and ruled in that time, but can be hard for us to understand.

What is it we are praying for in the Lord’s prayer when we ask, “Bring in your kingdom so that your will is done on earth as it’s done in heaven.”?

First, we are asking for the world to be put right. God who created all that is, knows the way things should be. A world put right would be just, loving, and abundant.

Second, we are asking for our hearts and those of others to be transformed so we obediently serve God. The transformations of hearts results in a community of people who are seeking to serve and obey God together so the world can be put right.

With that in mind, would you say you want to see the world put right? Do you desire to live a life that is obedient to Jesus?

If you don’t know, please take time to pray, fast, and seek God until you have an answer to those two questions.

In Christ,

Rick Ivey

Senior Pastor
