TODAY IS YOUR DAY

SENIOR PASTOR
REV. RICK IVEY

“And may your hearts be fully committed to the LORD our God, to live by his decrees and obey his commands, as at this time.”

1 Kings 8:61

Been thinking about commitment lately. Without commitment, important jobs and people get dropped through the cracks, neglected, and lost. I don't think it is that people today are any less able to make commitment or keep it than previous generations have been. Rather, I think the problem is that people are not careful about who or what they give their commitment.

Some of the commitments I make only take away from my life. If I am not careful with my commitments, I ended up feeling stretched too thin.

My commitment to Jesus, however, is a commitment that always gives more than it takes. He fills my life with joy, happiness, and peace like no one else. No matter what I am facing, I know that he will be with me.

Maybe instead of beating yourself up about your lack of commitment you need to take some time to think about what your life would be like if you made Jesus your first commitment.

What if he was the one who directed your steps and life instead of doing what was easy, comfortable, or accepted by the general population.

In Christ,

Rick Ivey

Senior Pastor

Hurricane relief opportunity: workers needed

We are sending a work team to Louisiana from October 8-10 to help in the aftermath of Hurricane Ida. We will be helping in and around Destrehan, LA and working with St. Charles UMC in Destrehan. This is the same church we partnered with for our communion rail offering. Pastor Michelle and the church are all so thankful for the gift and for us being able to come and help the community. We can take up to 20 people and we will be doing manual labor, such as debris removal and mucking and gutting. If you are interested, please email me to sign up and find out more. mcecil@wesleyumc.com
