ASSOCIATE
PASTOR
REV. MATT CECIL

They stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing he was dead. When the disciples surrounded him, he got up and entered the city again.
Acts 14:19-20

At what point do you call it quits? When do you say, 'enough is enough?' How dedicated are you to your work? I suspect, for many of us, that if our work brought us bodily harm, we would strongly consider leaving that job. If our career was life-threatening and inherently violent, we might consider not doing that work. There are certainly praiseworthy exceptions to this rule, but in general, we try to protect ourselves and we stop doing painful, dangerous, life-threatening work.

Paul is nearing the end of his very first missionary journey in our passage. He is on the third stop in this region where he has been run out of town, threatened with his life, and then finally stoned and left for dead. And when Paul wakes up, he walks back into the city where he was stoned! Do you go back to a job that has treated you this way?

Paul isn't just doing any job. He is sharing the Gospel of his savior with these people. He is proclaiming Christ's death and resurrection. He is lifting up God's grace and love to all people. But should sharing the Good News be this difficult? Paul certainly thinks so. Or at least, he certainly thinks it is worth it.

Paul never called it quits on his faith in Christ. He was certain and sure of his salvation and the hope he had in Christ. We can be, too. While our work in sharing the Gospel might not be as dangerous as it was for Paul, we know what it's like when people stare or mutter under their breath or judge us for our faith. Take courage in the fact that Paul remained faithful in all of that and so much more. We can too.

Grace & Peace,
Matt Cecil
Associate Pastor

WESLEY DAY SCHOOL 2022-2023 REGISTRATION NOW OPEN!

It's time to register for Wesley Day School!

Classes start at age 16 months (and walking) all the way to PreK-4. Anyone registering for our preschool 3's and 4's rooms must be completely potty trained.

Please find the forms at www.wesleyumc.com under the Day School tab.

You can return paperwork and registration fee in the Wesley Day School office. We will be processing paperwork on a first come, first serve basis.

We can't wait to welcome new families and returning families to our school!

Attention all gardeners, weed pullers, and mulchers!

We will be having a yard cleanup day at the church on Saturday, February 19, starting at 9:00 am.

No skills are necessary but if you have any available tools to bring (rakes, brooms, shovels, gloves, hedge trimmers, pruners, wheelbarrows, etc.) that will be greatly appreciated!

The more people that show up, the easier the job, and the sooner we can end. Come and join in!

Contact the church office or Tony Lucenti for any questions or more information.

Our spring women's retreat is now scheduled, so mark your calendars for March 18-19, 2022.

We will meet Friday evening at 6:00 at the Holy Family Center on Major Drive. Fun games, insightful speakers, happy music, yummy food, lively discussions, and a community service project are just a few things on the agenda.

If you want a room to yourself the cost is $130. If you'd like to share with a friend, the cost is only $100. Deadline for registration is February 25. Have questions? Call/text Debbie Canant at (409)673-8854

Visit our website, wesleyumc.com to register and pay.
