WESLEY SERVES AT SOME OTHER PLACE

Time to hit the kitchen at Some Other Place, with Wesley cooks scheduled to prepare lunch on Tuesday, March 8. We usually get there about 8:30 a.m., but a few of us are so excited by the opportunity that we show up even earlier!
See you then!

SENIOR PASTOR
REV. RICK IVEY

“One day Jesus was praying in a certain place.
When he finished, one of his disciples said to him,
“Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.”

Luke 11:1

What do you most often ask of God?

For many years, Robert Carothers, suffered from painful headaches. He did not complain, he just thanked God it was not as bad as other people's problems. Then one day he heard God ask him: "Why don't you try praising me for the headaches?"

"For headaches?", he asked.

"Yes, for it", said the Lord.

As odd as it may sound, Robert began to give God thanks and praise for the headaches because it was a way for him to depend more on Christ. He saw it was not just a physical problem but a spiritual one as well. He kept on praying, even when the headaches were overwhelming, and then suddenly he was flooded with joy. Joy permeated every inch of his body and then the headaches were no more.

Maybe you need to give God thanks for your problems and struggles this day so God can bring you joy!

Prayer: God, thank you for the problems and struggles I face each day. May they be a way for me to draw closer to you and experience your mighty power.

In Christ,
Rick Ivey
Senior Pastor
