SENIOR PASTOR
REV. RICK IVEY

“Instead, desire first and foremost God’s kingdom and God’s righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore, stop worrying about tomorrow, because tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.”

Matthew 6 : 33-34

Houston was recently named one of the rudest cities in the country. I cannot claim to understand how or why they did the research but the people who responded said it was a rude city. Who knew? Good news! Beaumont was not on that list.

One of our biggest priorities as a follower of Jesus is not doing harm. What do you think “doing harm” means?

A few of the things John Wesley included: not taking of the name of God in vain, fighting, quarreling, brawling, brother bringing lawsuits against brother; returning evil for evil, borrowing or lending money with interest, gossiping about others, doing ordinary work on the sabbath, hobbies and diversions that distract us from God, buying up treasure upon earth.

Wesley expected all of those called Methodist to pay attention and give evidence of their desire to “do no harm.”

What would you add to the list? Modern examples would probably have to include things John Wesley would never have considered.

He lived in a time before nuclear war, global economies, or social media. But most of the harm we need to be most concerned about is not global in nature. Instead we need to pay attention to our words and actions when it comes to our daily life.

Hope to see you this weekend.

In Christ,

Rick Ivey
Senior Pastor

The Book of James with Francis Chan

True faith produces fruit. A faith without action and without life change is ultimately a dead faith. Francis Chan unpacks the dense truth contained in the book of James, challenging followers of Christ to move beyond a private, intellectual knowledge of God and His Word, to a vibrant faith that impacts every square inch of life.

Teacher: Rick Ivey
Room 104

Route 66

This study provides a basic introduction to the structure and themes of the Word of God. Journey through this fast-moving study and discover the truths and applications that God placed in each book of the Bible. God's gracious work is clear - from creation to the cross to the consummation of time.

Teacher: Iris Smithey

Pathways to Wisdom

Proverbs and Ecclesiastes are a collection of biblical sayings and wisdom that are intended to help us with practical matters in our lives. Inside we encounter the wise and the foolish, and instructions for the journey to find the wisdom that comes from God alone.

Teacher: Matt Cecil

We will also have Wesley Kids, youth, choir, and childcare.

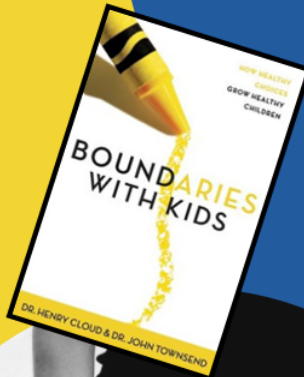

(we might have 456 as well)
