"They will ridicule him, spit on him,
torture him, and kill him.

After three days, he will rise up."

Mark 10:34

On the road to Jerusalem, Jesus predicts his own death and resurrection three times. (Mark 8:30, 9:30, 10:30.) Jesus is walking with his disciples and trying to teach them and prepare them for what is to come. And with one exception they entirely dismiss his words. They don't ask about it, they don't laugh it off. In the first prediction, Peter tries to correct Jesus and Jesus has to end up correcting Peter. It's almost comical, but again, there was no request for clarification. Nobody thought to ask what it meant that he would rise 3 days later. Instead, after each prediction, the disciples end up bickering with each other over who's the greatest or who can sit by Jesus in glory. They try to play favorites with the Son of God. They are distracted by trivial debate instead of focused on Christ.

Have you ever not listened to God speaking in your life? Have you ever ignored God, because life was busy or you were otherwise engaged? Have you ever looked back and seen that God placed opportunities or clues for you to be more prepared for a particular time in your life?

A couple weeks after Christ says these words, he will have gone to the cross and left an empty tomb. The disciples will wonder why. The women will leave the empty tomb scared. There will be confusion, fear, and doubt. There didn't have to be. There doesn't have to be now. Listen when God is calling. When God calls, new life is born. When God calls, there is resurrection.

Grace & Peace,

Matt Cecil

Associate Pastor

Certified Servant Ministry

Teacher: Rev. Matt Cecil

Location: Rm. 106

Take the next step in your Servant Leader training. Maybe you want to start a new ministry. Maybe you are looking for tools to help reach your neighbors. Maybe you don't know yet. Be ready for Christ's call with this Fall course.

Marriage Course

Teacher: Pastor Rick

Location: Rm. 101

Spring, summer, winter, fall. Marriages are perpetually in a state of transition, continually moving from one season to another. The purpose of this book is to describe these recurring seasons of marriage, help you and your spouse identify which season your marriage is in, and show you how to enhance your marriage in all four seasons.
6 Week Study of Gary Chapman's book with discussion and fellowship.

Gospel of Mark

Teacher: Connie Kinney

Location: Rm. 104

Take a deep dive into the earliest Gospel and see how Christ's work calls us to share the good news with everyone.

Route 66

Teacher: Iris Smithey

Location: Rm. 105

This study provides a basic introduction to the structure and themes of the Word of God. As students journey through this fast-moving survey, they will discover truths and applications that God placed in each book of the Bible. God's gracious work is clear - from creation to the cross to the consummation of time.
