Save The Date
GIVINGTUESDAY
NOVEMBER 30, 2021

SENIOR PASTOR
REV. RICK IVEY

Then Jesus said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”
The other table guests began to say among themselves,
“Who is this person that even forgives sins?”
Jesus said to the woman,
“Your faith has saved you. Go in peace.”

Luke 7:48-50

It is not good or bad people who enter the kingdom of heaven—it’s forgiven people who do.

It is hard for us to remember the need we have to receive forgiveness from God. It is even harder to remember the need other people in our life have the same need. In the weeks to come you will be around family and friends that need to know about God and our savior Jesus.

C.S. Lewis once wrote:

It is hardly possible for [us] to think too often or too deeply about [the glory] of our neighbor . . . It is a serious thing to live in a society of possible gods and goddesses, to remember that the dullest and most uninteresting person you talk to may one day be a creature which, if you saw it now, you would be strongly tempted to worship, or else a horror and a corruption such as you now meet, if at all, only in a nightmare. All day long we are, in some degree, helping each other to one or other of these destinations. It is in the light of these overwhelming possibilities, it is with the awe and the circumspection proper to them, that we should conduct all our dealings with one another, all friendships, all loves, all play, all politics. There are no ordinary people. You have never talked to a mere mortal. Nations, cultures, arts, civilization—these are mortal, and their life is to ours as the life of a gnat. But it is immortals whom we joke with, work with, marry, snub, and exploit—immortal horrors or everlasting splendors. (The Weight of Glory, pp. 14f.)

I hope you all have a wonderful holiday season. I hope you use it as way to show you love and care for others by telling them how much they are loved and cared for by God.

In Christ,
Rick Ivey
Senior Pastor
