SENIOR PASTOR
REV. RICK IVEY

“We live at best to be seventy years old, maybe eighty, if we’re strong. But the duration brings hard work and trouble because they go by so quickly.”

Psalm 90:10

What should I do with my life?

What should I do with the rest of my life?

I heard an interview with the inventor of Duolingo. Duolingo is a phone application (app) that teaches people a new language. At one point the designers of Duolingo asked millions of its users what they would do with their time if they were not using it on a language application. Overwhelmingly, the response was they would use their time on Instagram or other social media. To me, learning a new language seems like a better use of time than social media. How about you?

In Psalm 90, we hear the comment that we only get 70-80 years of life and much of our life is filled with work and trouble because it goes so fast. Can you relate? I know I am always amazed at how quickly a year goes by especially when there is lots of work and lots of trouble to deal with each day.

However, Psalm 90 also offers a way out of this dilemma. “Come back to us, Lord! Please, quick! Have some compassion for your servants! Fill us full every morning with your faithful love so we can rejoice and celebrate our whole life long.”

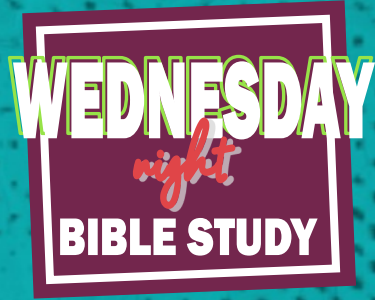

Maybe what you need to do with the days of your life, especially the busy ones filled with trouble is to start each of them with God. Get up a little earlier, read some scripture or a devotional, pray, and see what God has to say. You will be surprised with the amount of peace, hope, and grace your life will be filled with each morning.

As a church, we need to continue to pray and seek God each day. We need God to guide us, keep us safe, and grant us wisdom as we make decisions about our future together. Ask God to help us see the wonderful vision God has for Wesley. Pray we keep searching until we find the best God has to offer us.

In Christ,

The Book of James with Francis Chan

True faith produces fruit. A faith without action and without life change is ultimately a dead faith. Francis Chan unpacks the dense truth contained in the book of James, challenging followers of Christ to move beyond a private, intellectual knowledge of God and His Word, to a vibrant faith that impacts every square inch of life.

Pathways to Wisdom

Proverbs and Ecclesiastes are a collection of biblical sayings and wisdom that are intended to help us with practical matters in our lives. Inside we encounter the wise and the foolish, and instructions for the journey to find the wisdom that comes from God alone.

We will also have Wesley Kids, youth, choir, and childcare.

A word about staying United Methodist from Bishop Jones:

If you are a member of a church that has voted to dis-affiliate and your desire is to remain United Methodist, on behalf of the Texas Annual Conference, as your Bishop I want you to know that we love you and care about you and want to help you.

Below you will find a link to the Texas Annual Conference of the UMC website that will help somebody who wishes to remain UMC in several ways. On that page you will be able to:

- (1) do a search to find another United Methodist Church in your area;
- (2) let us know of your desire to be a part of a small group in your area or perhaps help launch a new United Methodist Church; or
- (3) send an email to us with questions.

In addition, on that page is a link that will allow you to participate in weekly zoom gatherings every Thursday evening at 7:00 starting on September 29th and ending on November 3rd.

Our goal is to keep the ministry of the Texas Conference strong in all of its 58 counties. We will be able to do this through the power of connection, the faithfulness of people like yourself and by the power of the Holy Spirit. I am reminded of the words of John Wesley: "The best of it all is that God is with us." God will be with us as we move into God's new future for us.
