SENIOR PASTOR
REV. RICK IVEY

“If we live by the Spirit, let’s follow the Spirit.
Let’s not become arrogant, make each other angry, or be jealous of each other.”

Galatians 5: 25-26

I shared with you my hope on Sunday that all of our members would pray and seek God about our upcoming decisions as a church. I hope you become informed about the options but most importantly that you pray and seek God. To help you with this, I am going to be sharing some helpful ways you can pray.

Did you know that the way you walk is almost as unique as your fingerprints? No one walks exactly like you. You also can tell a lot about how someone is feeling or their mood by how they are walking can’t you?

Scripture uses the word “walk” to describe how we live, make decisions, values, choices, and our attitude.

How is your current “walk” with God? How is your daily prayer walk with God?

I love to start each day walking my dog around my neighborhood. Other than the dog leash, the only thing I carry is a cup of coffee. But what if I carried around a heavy weight each day when I walked the dog? Do you think I would still enjoy it? Nope.

Maybe there is a heavy burden you need to let go of during this season of our church. Maybe you are burdened by something from your past. Maybe there is something you are clinging to that is not helping your “walk” with God. It could also help your prayer life to set aside something for the next month so you could focus more on God.

Let’s maximize our prayer and minimize our worry during this time. A closer walk with God will give us all the power we need.

In Christ,

BOOKWORMS

This month's Depression-era read for the Wesley Bookworms has a heaping helping of Galveston lore. Austin author Sarah Bird's

"Last Dance on the Starlight Pier" is a riveting tale that should make for lots of discussion when we meet at noon on Tuesday, Nov. 15.

SERVE WITH US

Grab an apron and a ball cap and come on down to Some Other Place on Tuesday, November 8 to help us cook! We start sometime after 8:00 am, and there's usually plenty for us to do right up until they lock the front door at 12:30. Fun gets stirred into the work, so give it a try.

This Christmas Eve, our communion rail offering will go to help the Wesley Foundation at Lamar University. The Wesley Foundation is a mission for all God's people and they are located on Lamar's campus. They serve college students by helping them find a life in Christ that leads to commitment and continued service to the Kingdom of God. They do this through weekly worship and Bible studies, campus mission work with a food pantry and meal offerings, and volunteer missions with Buckner Children's Home, Garth House, and various Disaster Relief efforts. They led the Methodist disaster relief effort after Imelda in our area. We want to support and continue to be part of the mission they are doing for Christ on the Lamar campus and beyond.

Part of the reason we are asking at this time has to do with the denominational split in the UMC. As the local conference has lost many churches, the funding for conference ministries (such as the Wesley Foundation at Lamar) will decline. We want to make sure Lamar Wesley can continue on in strength in the new year. In addition to their wonderful mission work and Christian discipleship, they also raise up young leaders in the church. They currently have a candidate for ordained ministry working at the Wesley Foundation, and a previous member of this campus ministry was a local pastor at Wesley.

We are excited for our fantastic Christmas Eve services and we are excited to partner in ministry with the Lamar Wesley Foundation with our communion rail offering.

Grace and Peace,
Matt Cecil
