FROM THE | PASTOR

*"Listen to my cry,
for I am in desperate need;
rescue me from those who pursue me,
for they are too strong for me.
7 Set me free from my prison,
that I may praise your name.
Then the righteous will gather about me
because of your goodness to me."
Psalm 142:6*

I was recently talking to a friend of mine that is going through a hard time in his life. He is a Christian who knows that God will get him through this season in his life, but it is still wearing on him. We talked, prayed, and I know God will be with him. All of us go through difficult periods in our lives. In fact, sometimes it may seem like some people are either getting out of a difficult time in their life or headed to the next one. The reasons may be very different, but we can all relate to David's words in Psalm 142. Many things can imprison us, but the truth of God's Word remains unchanged, whether we feel like this is true or not. We can enter that amazing space of experiencing, almost tasting the victory, that is ours before it even begins to happen. At other times, we experience what feels like the absence of God and the silence of heaven. However, in both cases, the Lord is still our refuge and our strength. His promises are true. We still cry out to him, knowing that, in the end, God will vindicate the faith of his servants.

As one of my favorite contemporary worship songs says,

*"Take courage my heart
Stay steadfast my soul
He's in the waiting
He's in the waiting
Hold onto your hope
As your triumph unfolds
He's never failing
He's never failing"
In Christ,*

Grace and Peace,

Rick Juey

WESLEY BOOKWORMS

Tuesday, February 19 - 12:00pm

Tuesday is the date for the next Wesley book club meeting, and we are gathering at Chris Broussard's house in Old Town at noon. The book for the day is "Next Year in Havana" by Chanel Cleeton, an interesting peek into a grandmother's past from the granddaughter's present. Come share your thoughts (and lunch, which is taco salad).
